Mr. Casey has over 40 years of experience in commercial dispute resolution. He is a former Principal of Baker & McKenzie International and a former Chair of the Firm's North American Litigation Practice group.

Mr. Casey received a Bachelor of Engineering degree from Carleton University and graduated magna cum laude with his LL.B. from the University of Ottawa. He was called to the Bar in 1976. He has practiced at all levels of the courts in Canada, including the Supreme Court of Canada.

Mr. Casey also holds an LL.M. in international business law from York University, having focused his studies on international commercial arbitration. In 1995 he was designated a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators. In 2012 he formed Bay Street Chambers to continue his practice as an independent arbitrator.

During his career, Mr. Casey has been retained as sole arbitrator, chairman of the tribunal, or as co-arbitrator in numerous arbitrations both ad hoc and institutional under the auspices of the LCIA, ICC, ICDR and ICSID.

Mr. Casey is listed in tier 1 in Chambers Global, in the Lexpert/American Lawyer Guide to the leading 500 lawyers in Canada, in Euromoney's Guide to the World's Leading Experts in Commercial Arbitration and in Who's Who Legal. He is an adjunct professor at the University of Toronto Law School and is on the Council of the American Arbitration Association. He is Chair of the Canadian Advisory Committee to the ICDR.

Mr. Casey is the author of Arbitration Law of Canada: Practice and Procedure, and is a contributor to International Arbitration Checklists, both published by Juris Publishing. He has also contributed to Alternative Dispute Resolution, (Aspatore Books), Arbitration World 4th Ed. (Sweet & Maxwell), the Ultimate Corporate Counsel Guide, (CCH), A Practitioner's Guide to Commercial Arbitration, (Irwin) and Jura Novit Curia in International Arbitration, (Juris).
